Lifestyle - Along with its secluded position in a quiet street setting, this landmark Art Deco P&O residence commands an elevated leafy outlook over the surrounding area. It represents a rare and unique property offering with enormous future potential for an update or creative redesign to capitalise on such a premier location. The home is presented in great condition, well maintained throughout and is on the market now for the first time in over 40 years

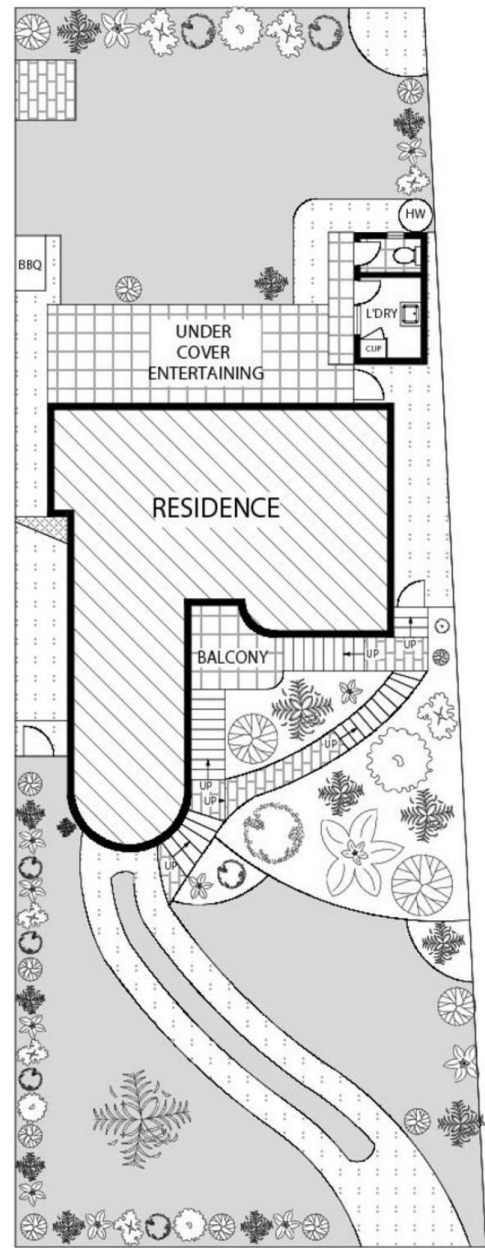

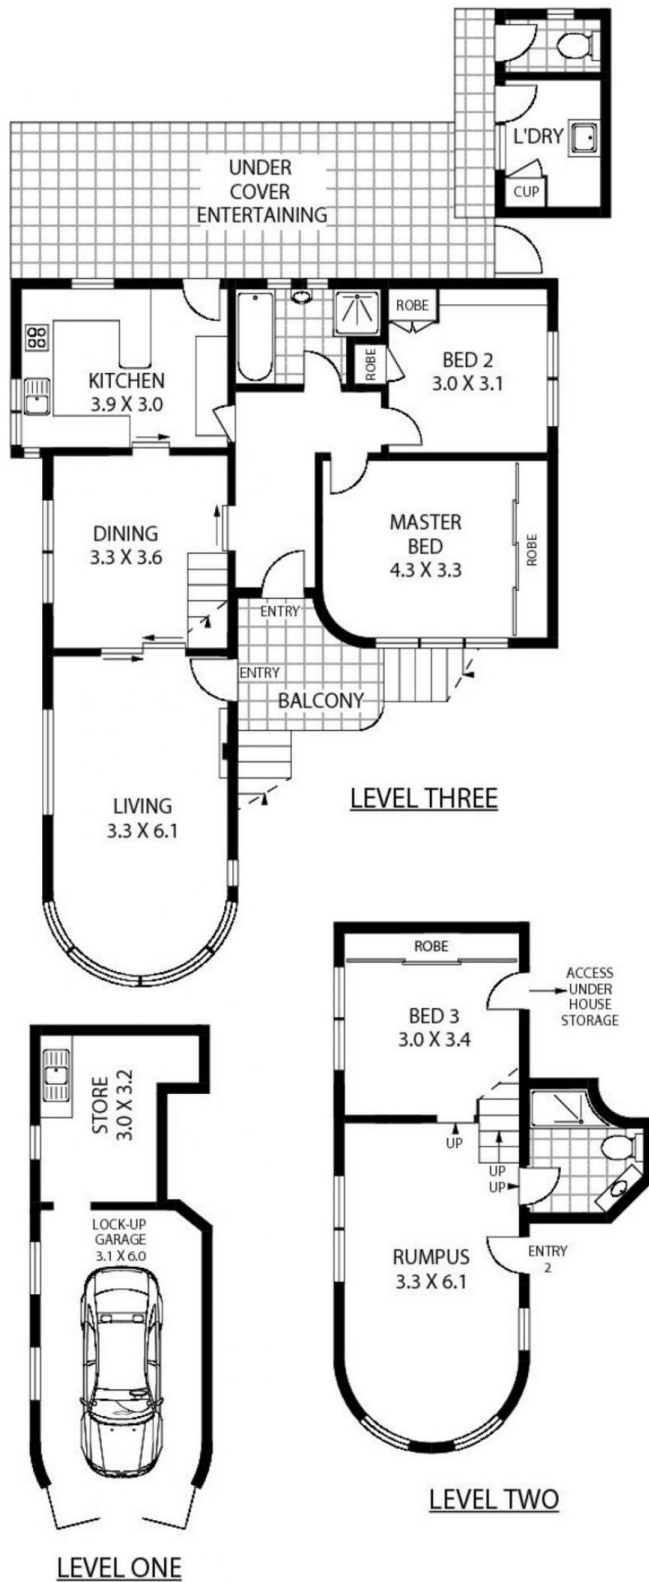

Accommodation - Interiors are well proportioned throughout and feature many preserved traditional details with high ceilings, ornate features and signature curved windows that enhance natural light and the pleasant outlook. There is a good sized living and dining area plus a casual meals area
